Reviewer’s report

Title: A cross-sectional study on workplace experience: a survey of nurses in Quebec, Canada

Version: 1 Date: 26 Jan 2019

Reviewer: Gilles Dussault

Reviewer’s report:

Responses to some comments are not satisfactory and should be reviewed before publication. This should not require much work.

1- The authors need to state the objective(s) and structure of the article (the sentence they added refers to the aims of the study)

2- The question on representativeness is: how the sample compares - in relation to age, years of experience, etc. to the population from which the sample was extracted.

3- RN4cast is cited but there is no mention of what this international study brings to the understanding of the issue which the article addresses.
