Title: Migration Intentions of Asian and African Medical Students Educated in China: A Cross Sectional Study

Version: 0 Date: 08 Apr 2019

Reviewer: Nathan Wilson

Reviewer's report:

There are many issues with basic linguistic clarity, which can easily be remedied.

Of deeper concern, however, are the many inaccuracies with regards to Africa's regional classification.

(1) Review usage of the term "sub-saharan Africa"

(2) The Sub-Saharan African Medical School Study: actual website

Then, also about references - I don't think that NDTV can be used as a credible reference - are there university or government sources with better credibility in the medical field?
