Version: 2 Date: 24 May 2019

Reviewer: Arnold Okpani

Reviewer's report:

With your decision to resubmit as a review article, I would like to suggest the following changes:

1. The abstract will need to be rewritten to reflect the change to a review article.

2. A lot of the material in the "methods" section will fit better in the "discussions" section. This will include all the material from the segment titled "conceptual framework" all the way to "administration and management of SHIS".

3. The results section needs more material from the "result" of your review of the literature.

3. The manuscript title may also need to change to reflect a review article.
