Title: Health workers' experiences with the Safe Delivery App in West Wollega Zone, Ethiopia: A qualitative study

Version: 0  Date: 12 Feb 2019

Reviewer's report:

Well written and interesting paper. A qualitative study that is very detailed presented. I would probably have aimed to reduce some of the Result section, but if the journal is willing to accept the size of the manuscript I think the content is fine. Some language editing is warranted. That might be done as in-house language editing by the editorial team.
