Reviewer’s report

Title: Spatial dimensions of telemedicine and abortion access: a qualitative study of women’s experiences

Version: 0 Date: 11 Mar 2019

Reviewer: Ellen Wiebe

Reviewer's report:

Very interesting and useful analysis of the benefits of telemedicine based on spacial dimensions.

When you discuss the anti-choice women saying that abortion should not be easy for other women, it is important to say that antichoice women commonly present to abortion clinics.
