Reviewer’s report:

Dear Author(s),

I congratulate you for your research and well written manuscript.

I have 2 comments for you:

I wish you have evaluated your perinatal outcome sooner than one year after the births, you could have eliminated the memory factors better.

My second comment for you it would be better to add some words to the headding of your tables to identify the date and place of your research work.

I hope your research result will guide decisionmakers to use in the health care system.

All The Best
