Title: Assessing Organizational Implementation Context in the Education Sector: Confirmatory Factor Analysis of Measures of Implementation Leadership, Climate, and Citizenship

Version: 1 Date: 13 Dec 2017

Reviewer: Elaine Wilson

Reviewer’s report:

The authors have acknowledged the points I made in the first review and have made the necessary changes suggested. However I still think that the follow up search for education based literature was potentially narrow and hence the conclusion that the authors were 'unable to locate additional school-focused measures of types of organizational implementation constructs'. Perhaps the tone of this section might be altered to indicate that the obvious search terms did not throw up examples and that perhaps there are other ways of conceptualizing implementation in the broad education literature?
