Reviewer’s report

Title: Risk factors of atrial fibrillation occurring after radical surgery of esophageal carcinoma

Version: 1 Date: 21 Feb 2019

Reviewer: Peter Denk

Reviewer’s report:

The revisions made to the manuscript provide additional clarity to the message of the paper. However I'm not sure if the added Chinese search terms could confuse the readers, most of whom probably cannot read Chinese. I don't think this question is important enough to demand revision prior to publication, unless the other reviewers feel differently.
