Reviewer’s report

Title: Hybrid treatment of an unusual traumatic aortic arch rupture with pseudoaneurysm: a case report

Version: 0 Date: 28 Jan 2019

Reviewer: Eduardo Rocha

Reviewer’s report:

The treatment of the patient was done with excellence. However, the treatment is not innovative. A case report to be published should reveal an exceptional technical innovation or a very curious case. I do not think this case report fits these criteria
