Version: 0 Date: 12 Dec 2019

Reviewer: Walid Abu Arab

Reviewer's report:

The authors presented a meta-analysis study of the Efficacy and safety of endoscopic submucosal tunnel dissection for superficial esophageal neoplastic lesions. This is an interesting study for those working in the field and I think it will be a helpful aid in that field. The manuscript needs to be revised for its English language as there are some grammatical mistakes.

The tables and figures are well illustrated.
