Title: History of Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation in Ancient China: A narrative review

Version: 0  Date: 17 Nov 2019

Reviewer: Charilaos Panagiotis Koutsogiannidis

Reviewer's report:

The authors reported a very interesting paper about the history of cardiopulmonary resuscitation in China starting more than 2,000 years ago. China has a rich CPR history which the authors have divided in different eras chronically. I think the readers will find this paper very interesting. Their text is generally very well written. My opinion about this case report is positive.
