Title: Medial Malleolus: Operative Or Non-operative (MOON) Trial Protocol’A prospective randomised controlled trial of operative versus non-operative management of associated medial malleolus fractures in unstable fracture dislocations of the ankle’

Version: 2 Date: 25 Jul 2019

Reviewer: Ruth Knight

Reviewer's report:

Even though the anticipated rate of follow-up at the primary outcome time point is high (93%), I still believe it would be of value to include a mixed effects repeated measures model linear regression model for the OMAS as a supporting analysis. This makes best use of all available data, and if nothing else it would be reassuring to confirm that the results are the same as the other analyses used.
