Title: European survey on national training activities in clinical research

Version: 0 Date: 11 Jul 2019

Reviewer: Eduardo José Ferreira dos Santos

Reviewer’s report:

I appreciate the opportunity to review this article.

The theme is current and relevant in this field.

I was particularly interested because I am a study nurse and study coordinator in about 13 trials.

Overall, the article is well written and respects the essential principles for conducting a survey. All concepts of clinical research are also faithful.

In this sense, I believe that the conditions are in place to accept its publication.
