Reviewer’s report:

Congratulations to your interesting case report!

In my opinion you revealed an interesting metastasic spread of a rare carcinoma entity. The brief an to-the-point presentation without unneccesary remarks made it pleasure to read. Although, from my point of view, no really big enchancement of medical and scientific knowledge can be drawn out of this case, your whole report stays an interesting and very well written first description of a uncommom disease process.
