Reviewer’s report

Title: A rare case report of giant mucinous adenocarcinoma of the appendix

Version: 1 Date: 29 Jun 2017

Reviewer: Imtiaz Wani

Reviewer’s report:

1. Do you believe the case report is authentic?

   Yes/No

2. Do you have any ethical concerns? Please consider if local Institutional Review Board approval or ethical approval was obtained (if appropriate) and if the patient (or their parent or guardian in the case of children under 18) gave written, informed consent to publish this case and any accompanying images. A statement to this effect should appear in the manuscript.

   Comments:

3. Does the Introduction explain the relevance of the case to the medical literature?

   Yes/No

4. Does the article report the following information? Where information is missing, please specify.

   a. The relevant patient information, including:

      - De-identified demographic information (age, gender, ethnicity)
      - Main symptoms of the patient
      - Medical, family and psychosocial history
      - Relevant past interventions and their outcomes

   b. The relevant physical examination findings

   c. Important dates and times in this case (if appropriate, organized as a timeline via a figure or table); if specific dates could lead to patient identification, consider including time relevant to initial presentation, i.e. initial presentation at T = 0, follow up at T = 1 month.

   d. Diagnostic assessments, including:
- Diagnostic methods
- Challenges (e.g., financial, language/cultural)
- Reasoning and prognostic characteristics (e.g., staging), where applicable

e. Types and mechanism of intervention

f. A summary of the clinical course of all follow-up visits

9. Additional comments for the author(s)?

English is very much blunt in manuscript, needs to get fineness

Rarity or first case is no criteria for acceptance of manuscript unless with some message which is going to change course

What was abdominal girth

Please write full form of abbreviations preceding that

Rewrite your CECT findings

Lumpectomy is Atypical term
It is not clear what are you exploring and resecting. Could this be rewritten in simple surgical language

Discussion has no insight of your case
