Title: Use of an intraoperative navigation system and piezoelectric surgery for styloidectomy in a patient with Eagle's syndrome: a case report

Version: 0 Date: 01 Aug 2017

Reviewer: Ahmad Abdelkarim

Reviewer's report:

This is a very well documented and written technique, but not sure if it is suitable for publication in the Journal of Medical Case Reports. As a new surgical technique, it may be more suitable for a surgical journal, Journal of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, ENT journal, etc.
