Reviewer’s report

Title: An example of dark side of the liver diseases; PORPHYRIA CUTANEA TARDA: a case report

Version: 1 Date: 09 Dec 2018

Reviewer: Tibor Fülöp

Reviewer’s report:

1. Authors need to elaborate very clearly - what is unique about their observation? PCT on its right reasonable common… What is the single one (or 2-3) thing(s) they would like to emphasize [being unique about the observation]?

2. Authors need to follow CARE guidelines very carefully, e.g., to include the words "case report" in the paper's main title

3. Careful English revision and editing is still needed - the overall write up of the discussion is still not sufficiently coherent, and several typos and errors are present in the manuscript

Some examples of incorrect English (use): Hekzaklorobenzen, cytocrom, otosomal dominant, dialysis (do you mean end-stage renal disease ?), hepsidin, family heredity history, tec.
