Reviewer’s report

Title: Burn wounds after electrical injury in a bathtub, a case report

Version: 0 Date: 11 Jul 2019

Reviewer: Apostolos Zatagias

Reviewer's report:

1. Do you believe the case report is authentic?
   Yes

2. Do you have any ethical concerns? Please consider if local Institutional Review Board approval or ethical approval was obtained (if appropriate) and if the patient (or their parent or guardian in the case of children under 18) gave written, informed consent to publish this case and any accompanying images. A statement to this effect should appear in the manuscript.

   Comments: I think from what I read in the article that the authors covered all possible ethical issues concerning the published data.

3. Does the Introduction explain the relevance of the case to the medical literature?
   Yes

4. Does the article report the following information? Where information is missing, please specify.
   a. The relevant patient information, including:
      - De-identified demographic information (age, gender, ethnicity)
      - Main symptoms of the patient
      - Medical, family and psychosocial history
      - Relevant past interventions and their outcomes
   b. The relevant physical examination findings
c. Important dates and times in this case (if appropriate, organized as a timeline via a figure or table); if specific dates could lead to patient identification, consider including time relevant to initial presentation, i.e. initial presentation at $T = 0$, follow up at $T = 1$ month.

d. Diagnostic assessments, including:

- Diagnostic methods

- Challenges (e.g., financial, language/cultural)

- Reasoning and prognostic characteristics (e.g., staging), where applicable

e. Types and mechanism of intervention

f. A summary of the clinical course of all follow-up visits

Comments: I believe it is alright.

5. Is the interpretation (discussion and conclusion) well balanced and supported by the case presented?

Comments: Yes it is well written and discusses the subject simply but right to the point.

6. Is the anonymity of the patient protected? Please consider any identifying information in images such as facial features or nametags, whether the patient is named etc. If not, please detail below.

Yes

7. Is the Abstract representative of the case presented?

Comments: As it should be.

8. Does the case represent a useful contribution to the medical literature?

Comments: It does. It discusses a current subject of the excessive use of electronic devices that we all consider harmless but can be dangerous under certain circumstances. Family and school should be able to properly educate children and teenagers on the topic.
9. Additional comments for the author(s)? An interesting case, I believe that you should add an additional comment in the conclusion section mentioning the role of family and school in the proper education to prevent such issues in the future. Make it even stronger if there is supporting data in the literature. A small change should be considered on line 84 where the word "signs" is not written properly. Thank you.
