Title: Communication Strategies for Rare Cancers: A Systematic Review Protocol

Version: 0 Date: 09 Dec 2018

Reviewer: Philippa Moore

Reviewer's report:

Interesting subject of special interest for specialists in rare cancers. Ambitious protocol which may retrieve a huge number of articles. Disappointing that only articles published in english will be searched for - there may be good ideas published in other languages! You may wish to consider re-writing this phrase "The interventions highlighted in this review will include a range of communication strategies used to convey information about each respective medical intervention." as, as far as I can see you are also including articles about strategies to convey information on diagnosis too.
