Version: 0 Date: 15 Mar 2019

Reviewer: Hongyong Deng

Reviewer’s report:

Some suggestions for the protocol:

1. As one type of acupuncture which originated in China, the auriculotherapy should most clinical applied and reported in China too. I noticed the authors included some Chinese medical dbs (such as CNKI and CBMdisc), but unfortunately they stated ‘Only articles in English, Portuguese and Spanish will be selected’ in the text, so, how about Chinese?

2. Again on Chinese databases, some Chinese information specialists should be considered to helping build strategy of searching.

Thank you.
