Version: 1 Date: 29 Jul 2019

Reviewer's report:

The manuscript improved in all the sections. All the suggestions and considerations were took into account. In my opinion, there is a limited public of interests in this manuscript. However, the paper addressed interesting point of view in the area and it could help for further research not only in the drug safety field. I considered that further aspects are not necessary and the article is suitable for publication in this version. Congratulations to the authors for the effort done to qualify the report.
