Title: Consequences of Child Emotional Abuse, Emotional Neglect and Exposure to Intimate Partner Violence for Eating Disorders: A Systematic Critical Review

Version: 1 Date: 08 Aug 2017

Reviewer: Michael Musker

Reviewer's report:

Just a couple of minor edits: An error in the abstract - using the word Screed instead of screened - line 41 page 2

I was wondering about the use of the word 'White' rather than Caucasian. I am unsure of the practice with this term for race and what the practice of the journal is? Line 51 page 2 and line 46 page 22 - should it have a capital W mid-sentence?

CE IPV is used in line 53 page 9 but is not specifically spelt out as an acronym - even though Childhood exposure to IPV is first used on page 5 (but uses a small E, then later uses a capital E elsewhere?). Nor is it mentioned in the list of abbreviations. It's also written differently in the headings on page 17.

A couple of other typos towards the end:

page 23 line 36 should read 'may be useful'

page 24 line 31 has 'that that' should read 'that'

page 25 line 12 should read 'ability to capture'

page 27 line 9 should read 'and eating'

Apart from that it was an interesting read.
