Title: In vitro wound healing of tumor cells: Inhibition of cell migration by selected cytotoxic alkaloids

Version: 0 Date: 03 Sep 2018

Reviewer: Rainer Miksch

Reviewer’s report:

Dear Authors,

First of all, a quick but nice publication. Methods are clearly described and results underline the conclusion.

I would recommend to include the supplementary figures as well to the main manuscript, at least additional file number 1.

Furthermore, I would emphasize the importance of cytotoxic alkaloid in clinical practice in the introduction because you refer to it as a possible "candidate for the development of novel agents against metastasis" in your conclusion.
