Reviewer’s report

Title: Skipping breakfast among 8-9 year old children is associated with teacher-reported but not objectively measured academic performance two years later

Version: 1 Date: 25 May 2017

Reviewer: Alison Yaxley

Reviewer's report:

Thank you for addressing comments from the first review so comprehensively.

My only comment on the revised manuscript is in relation to the introduction of 'poverty' in the final sentence of the conclusion. This should be discussed and if the mention of SES in the discussion is related to poverty this should be more clearly linked.
