The manuscript is a well written.

Method: you mentioned how published articles and universities were searched, but no information about hospitals. In your result the findings talk about hospitals. Better to add more about hospital selection.

Discussion: Rather than putting a single finding and discussing this finding, I recommend to put the major findings together in the first paragraph and then discuss these major findings.

You have mentioned many limitations of your study and you need to put the strength of your study and how you tried to minimize the limitations.

Conclusion: is almost similar with your findings. Better to rewrite
