Thank you for your revisions. I can tell that you have put a lot of work into this, and the manuscript is good shape. The revisions to shorted the manuscript are well done. There are still some grammatical issues that need to be corrected prior to publication. For example, in the sentence starting on line 53, the sentence should read "The study indicated that there was limited access to...". On line 60, the revision should be "contribute to the limited utilization of...". In lines 157-159, the sentence meaning is unclear, but I believe you mean "where available". The end of the sentence on lines 696 to 698, "and often" is unclear. Other than these changes, the manuscript is relevant and important and in great shape to make an impact.
