Title: Supporting harm reduction through peer support (SHARPS): Testing the feasibility and acceptability of a peer-delivered, relational intervention for people with problem substance use who are homeless, to improve health outcomes, quality of life and social functioning, and reduce harms: Study protocol

Version: 0 Date: 22 Feb 2019

Reviewer: Chris Sargeant

Reviewer's report:

This is an interesting article which gives a clear and succinct review of the evidence in this area, and then seeks to add to the evidence base.

It will help to better define and measure what 'feels' like a supportive and helpful intervention to those working in the field with people who are homeless.
