Title: Mindfulness intervention for foundation year doctors: A feasibility study

Version: 1 Date: 02 Mar 2019

Reviewer: Simon Oczkowski

Reviewer's report:

Thank you for the opportunity to review this revised manuscript.

I believe the that the authors have addressed my concerns-- in particular the discussion session does a much better job of addressing the study limitations, but also the ways in which this study could inform future trials on mindfulness interventions for health care professionals, including potential barriers to such interventions, as well as difficulty in follow-up.
