Reviewer’s report

Title: Key recruitment and retention strategies for a pilot web-based intervention to decrease obesity risk among minority youth

Version: 0 Date: 29 May 2019

Reviewer: Chris Newby

Reviewer's report:

A good feasibility study with special emphasis on retention and recruitment in a specific population. Well written with some good solutions to retention and recruitment. Need to format tables and figures better as some appear in text where others appear at end.
