Reviewer's report:

Thank you for considering the comments received

A few more minor changes to make, mostly regarding typing errors;

Page 8 line 10 - sentence doesn't make sense. Typo?

Page 14 line 10 - typo in sentence. I think you mean 'long waiting times'

Page 16 line 7 - word missing. Line 8 'future studies could exclude…' should be a separate sentence. Line 18 not sure about this sentence. Are you sure a sufficiently powered sample size is there to obtain a difference? Isn't sufficient power more about helping increase the probability to make a correct decision regarding the null hypothesis e.g. detecting differences that truly exist… revise this sentence
