Title: Membrane-bound exosomal HSP70 as a biomarker for detection and monitoring of malignant solid tumours: a pilot study

Version: 1 Date: 02 Feb 2020

Reviewer's report:

The manuscript "Membrane-bound exosomal HSP70 as biomarker for detection and monitoring of malignant solid tumors" by Chanteloup et al was carefully edited after comments from another reviewer and editor. The authors answered all the questions posed and made major changes in the original text, following their recommendations. I see no reason to change my original opinion and I believe that this manuscript is quite suitable for publication in Pilot and Feasibility Studies.
