Reviewer’s report

Title: The impact of involvement on researchers: a learning experience.

Version: 0  Date: 29 May 2017

Reviewer: Cornelia Borowczak

Reviewer's report:

Your results are exactly the same I found out regarding my work as an patient representative with physicians. They are very thankful to become feedback from patients and caregivers. Sharing experiences is often an unique possibility for a doctor to learn about the concerns of the patient. It helps them to understand the needs of a patient in different ways. Thank you for your research!
