Title: Testing an Active Intervention to Deter Researchers’ Use of Questionable Research Practices

Version: 2 Date: 18 Oct 2019

Reviewer: Lex Bouter

Reviewer's report:

The revision is carefully done and the revised manuscript is much clearer and more informative.

I don't fully agree with all modifications, but consider them good enough to pass.

Maybe with just one exception: why do the authors refuse to tell how many people were invited to get 201 consenting participants. Maybe they have no idea, but if they have I would like them to mention it in the article.
