Title: Unrecognized Implementation Science Engagement among Health Researchers in the United States: A national survey

Version: 0 Date: 11 Feb 2020

Reviewer: Kelly Pray

Reviewer's report:

Dear authors-

Strengths of the research include data validation and survey design. Weakness that was identified is that the study overall lends itself to an IS audience; while the article will be relevant to journal readers, there is opportunity to expand readership by furthering definitions of IS, its impact on research studies and consequences of not using IS in research.

Grammatical areas to refine:

Lines 77-78 need minor revisions to grammar.

Lines 85-87 proposed edits "As a result, ensuring researchers are aware of established methods of IS in their approach is pivotal to impactful implementation research"

Thank you.
